SOUTH-CAROLINA.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over his Majeſty's ſaid Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have this Day prorogued the General Aſſembly of this Province to Tueſday the 28th Inſtant, in order then to proceed upon the Diſpatch of Public Buſineſs: I DO therefore, by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Honourable Council, publiſh this my Proclamation, notifying the ſame; hereby requiring all Perſons concerned to take due Notice thereof, and give their Attendance accordingly.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province at Charles-Town, this ſeventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1769, and in the Tenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By his Honour's Command,
THOMAS SKOTTOWE, Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

BOSTON, September 4.

THE Houſe of Repreſentatives of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, in the laſt Seſſion of the General Aſſemby, UNANIMOUSLY reſolved on a dutiful and loyal Petition to the KING, for the removal of Sir Francis Bernard from the Government of the province. There were preſent 109 members when the Houſe came into this reſolution. The petition was afterwards ſigned by the Speaker, by order of the Houſe, and tranſmitted to Great-Britain, to be preſented to his Majeſty; of which the following is a Copy.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful ſubjects, the Repreſentatives of your ancient and loyal colony of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, impreſſed with the deepeſt gratitude to Almighty GOD, for calling to the Britiſh ſucceſſion your illuſtrious family, and ſo firmly eſtabliſhing your Majeſty on the throne of your royal progenitors, and being abundantly convinced of your Majeſty's grace and clemency, moſt humbly implore the royal favour, while we briefly repreſent our grievances, which your Majeſty alone under GOD can redreſs.

We are conſtrained in duty to your Majeſty, and in faithfulneſs to our conſtituents, to lay before your Majeſty our complaints of his Excellency Sir Francis Bernard, Baronet, your Majeſty's Governor of this colony, whoſe whole adminiſtration appears to have been repugnant not only to your Majeſty's ſervice, and the welfare of your ſubjects in the colony, but even to the firſt principles of the Britiſh conſtitution.

From his firſt arrival here, he has, in his ſpeeches and other public acts, treated the repreſentative body with contempt.

He has in his public ſpeeches charged both Houſes of the General Aſſembly expreſsly with oppugnation againſt the Royal authority, declaring that they had left gentlemen out of the Council, only for their fidelity to the crown.

He has from time to time indiſcreetly and wantonly exerciſed the prerogative of the crown, in the repeated negative of Counſellors of an unblemiſhed reputation, and duly elected by a great majority, ſome of them by the unanimous ſuffrage of both Houſes of Aſſembly.

He has declared, that certain ſeats at the Council Board ſhall be kept vacant, 'till certain gentlemen who are his favourites ſhall be re-elected.

He has unconſtitutionally interfered with and unduly influenced elections, particularly in the choice of an Agent for the colony.

He has very abruptly diſplaced divers gentlemen of worth, for no apparent reaſon, but becauſe they voted in the General Aſſembly with freedom, and againſt his meaſures.

He has in an unwarrantable manner taken upon himſelf the exerciſe of your Majeſty's royal prerogative, in granting a charter for a college, contrary to an expreſs vote of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, and without even aſking the advice of your Majeſty's Council.

He has practiſed the ſending over depoſitions to the Miniſtry, privately taken, againſt gentlemen of character here, without giving the perſons accuſed the leaſt notice of his purpoſes and proceedings.

He has very injuriouſly repreſented your Majeſty's loving ſubjects of this colony in general, as having an ill temper prevailing among them, as diſaffected to your Majeſty's government, and intending to bring the authority of Parliament into contempt. And by ſuch falſe repreſentations, he has been greatly inſtrumental, as this Houſe humbly conceive, in exciting jealouſies, and diſturbing that harmony and mutual affection which before happily ſubſiſted, and we pray GOD may again ſubſiſt between your Majeſty's ſubjects in Great-Britain and America.

He has in his letters to one of your Majeſty's Miniſters unjuſtly charged the majority of your Majeſty's faithful Council in the colony with having avowed the principles of oppoſition to the authority of Parliament, and acted in concert with a party from whence ſuch oppoſition originated.

He has alſo in his letter to another of your Majeſty's Miniſters falſly declared that a plan was laid, and a number of men actually enrolled in the town of Boſton, to ſeize your Majeſty's Caſtle-William, in the harbour of the ſame, out of your Majeſty's hands.

Such repreſentations of the ſtate and circumſtances of this colony, from a gentleman of the higheſt truſt in it, will of neceſſity be received with full credit, till they are made to appear falſe. And in conſequence thereof, your Majeſty's true and loyal ſubjects have ſuffered the reproach, as well as other hardſhips, of having a military force ſtationed here, to ſupport your Majeſty's authority, and the execution of the laws, which meaſure has been approved of by your Majeſty's two Houſes of Parliament, as appears in their reſolutions, that the town of Boſton had been in a ſtate of diſorder and confuſion, and that the circumſtances of the colony were ſuch as required a military force for the purpoſes above mentioned.

Having been a principal inſtrument, as we apprehend, in procuring this military force, your Majeſty's ſaid Governor, in an unprecedented manner, and as though he had deſigned to irritate to the higheſt degree, ordered the very room which is appropriated for the meeting of the Repreſentatives of the General Aſſembly, and was never uſed for any other purpoſe, and where their records are kept, to be employed as a barrack for the common ſoldiers: And the centinels were ſo poſted as that your Majeſty's Council and the juſtices of the courts of common law, were daily interrupted, and even challenged in their proceedings to the buſineſs of their ſeveral departments.

He endeavoured, contrary to the expreſs deſign of an act of Parliament, to quarter your Majeſty's troops in the body of the town of Boſton, while the barracks provided by the government at the caſtle, within the town, remained uſeleſs: And for purpoſes manifeſtly evaſive of ſaid act, he unwarrantably appointed an officer to provide quarters for the troops, otherwiſe than is therein preſcribed.

After having diſſolved the General Aſſembly at a moſt critical ſeaſon, and while they were employed in the moſt neceſſary and important buſineſs of the colony, he arbitrarily refuſed to call another for the ſpace of ten months; and until the time appointed in the Royal charter for the calling a General Aſſembly, againſt the repeated dutiful petitions of the people.

It appears by his letters to the Earl of Hillſborough, your Majeſty's Secretary of State, that he has endeavoured to overthrow the preſent conſtitution of government in this colony, and to have the people deprived of their invaluable charter rights, which they and their anceſtors have happily enjoyed, under your Majeſty's adminiſtration, and thoſe of your Royal predeceſſors.

By the means aforeſaid, and many others that might be enumerated, he has rendered his adminiſtration odious to the whole body of the people, and has intirely alienated their affections from him, and thereby wholly deſtroyed that confidence in a Governor, which your Majeſty's ſervice indiſpenſably requires.

Wherefore we moſt humby intreat your Majeſty, that his Excellency Sir Francis Bernard, Baronet, may be for ever removed from the government of this province: And that your Majeſty would be graciouſly pleaſed to place one in his ſtead, worthy to ſerve the greateſt and beſt Monarch on earth.

And the Repreſentatives of the colony of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, as in duty bound, ſhall ever pray.

In their name, and by their order,

Signed by the Speaker.

LONDON, Auguſt 17.

A Moſt curious library of books, ſuppoſed to be one of the beſt choſen for its ſize in Europe, has been lately ſold by auction at Paris. It conſiſted only of 4000 volumes, and fetched the ſum of 15,000l. Among the purchaſers, we hear Doctor Hunter laid out a thouſand guineas. We hear his Britannic Majeſty gave commiſſions for ſeveral large purchaſes at the ſame ſale.

It is reported at the weſt end of the town, that the following great perſons are to compoſe a new Miniſtry, viz. Firſt Lord of the Treaſury, Duke of Bedford, Chancellor of the Exchequer, Jeremiah Dyſon, Eſq. Lord Chancellor, Lord Mansfield. Secretaries of State, Earls Sandwich and Gower. Preſident of the Council, the Duke of Grafton. Lord Privy Seal, the Duke of Marlborough. Lord Chief Juſtice, Sir Fletcher Norton.

AUGUST 18. The report of the Duke of Grafton's reſigning, and retiring with a penſion, is entirely without foundation.

The letter that lately appeared in the public papers, purporting to be from Samuel Vaughan, Eſq; to the Duke of Grafton, is entirely a forgery, and does not contain a ſingle ſentence of the real letter. And it is with pleaſure we can aſſure the public, that the accounts which have been publiſhed of Mr. Vaughan's application to the Duke of Grafton, greatly miſrepreſent the fact.

The following is handed about at the weſt end of the town, as a copy of the letter from a patriotic citizen, to an unpopular miniſter, viz.

"Your Grace will, no doubt, be ſurprized at receiving a letter from me, more particularly on this occaſion; but I flatter myſelf, that a little reflection will remove that ſurprize, and obviate any ſeeming inconſiſtency in my behaviour. Your Grace, I am much afraid, may have been induced, from ſome parts of my political conduct, to look upon me as an enemy; but I aſſure your Grace, upon the word of a man of honour, that notwithſtanding appearances, ſuch a ſuppoſition does me the cruelſt injuſtice. It is true, I have endeavoured to oppoſe ſome meaſures of adminiſtration; yet believe me, theſe endeavours did not proceed from any real diſapprobation of theſe meaſures, but the contrary; I therefore hope your Grace will not be offended at my preſuming to ſollicit your Grace's patronage and aſſiſtance, in obtaining for my ſon, the reverſion of the place of clerk of the Crown in the iſland of Jamaica. As this may be probably attended with ſome trouble, and my humble ſtation in life not permitting me to hope for an opportunity of repaying your Grace in kind, I have taken the liberty of incloſing five Bank bills, for one thouſand pounds each, which I beg your Grace will do me the honour to accept of, as a ſmall ſpecimen of my moſt profound reſpect, preſent eſteem, and future gratitude. Fearing your Grace ſhould ſuſpect me to be baſe enough to make an unfair uſe of your Grace's condeſcenſion, in patronizing me on this occaſion, I have made an affidavit before my Lord Mayor, obliging myſelf to maintain an inviolable ſecrecy, with regard to every circumſtance of this tranſaction, which affidavit I ſend you incloſed. I hope your Grace will pardon this liberty, and believe me to be, with moſt reſpectful deference, and unalterable eſteem, &c."

To the Printer of the Public Advertiſer.

Mr. WOODFALL,

YOUR inſerting the following letter which I received from a correſpondent in Charles-Town, South-Carolina, by the laſt packet, will enable your readers to form a proper opinion of the importance to the people of England of the late alarming reſolutions of the inhabitants of that province, and perhaps ſerve to throw ſome light upon the ſimilar reſolutions of the inhabitants in the other colonies. The duty which I owe to my country muſt be my apology for making this letter public.

I am, Sir, Your humble Servant, J. C.

SIR, Charles-Town, July 1, 1769.

HEREWITH you will receive my order for a large parcel of goods for a winter aſſortment, to be ſent to this place early in the fall, together with a remittance upon account, as by my letters accompanying it will be made appear to you; all which I now confirm. The preſent ſerves to hand to you a ſmall order for account of our friend T. S. who, to make himſelf of importance, has begun an aſſociation here not to import ſundry goods from England until the duty acts are repealed; and the better to ſhew his patriotiſm, has written a letter (a copy of which he hands about with the ſubſcription paper) countermanding an order he had lately given to his own houſe in London for the ſeveral goods which, in confidence, he has deſired I will procure for him. A number of names were ſoon got to this extraordinary paper; and if you knew their circumſtances, you would have no doubt of their adhering moſt firmly to their engagements. Some of them indeed you and the other gentlemen in the Carolina trade do know; for they were refuſed credit by you all very lately, and therefore you will not wonder at their joining in an aſſociation not to deal with you. For the ſame reaſon I ſhall expect to ſee our neighbours in Georgia forming the like aſſociation; for I underſtand that ſeveral of their orders are come back unexecuted, and that others have been greatly curtailed in the execution. It is an excellent method of concealing our want of credit, to engage not to deal with thoſe who will not truſt us; pride and chagrin will alſo excite others to declare the ſame enmity againſt England that want of credit has led theſe to do. When any of our great men go over to you, they expect to find themſelves as important upon the Royal Exchange as they have been under our Vendue-houſe, and that their nonſenſe and vociferation will paſs upon you for reaſon and argument. A little experience ſhews them their miſtake; and after having run out ſomething more than their income in ſupporting their ideal importance, they find England to be a land of ſlaves, and betake themſelves in high dudgeon to their native ſwamps. The reſtraints upon trade, and the want of paper currency, are fine topics for theſe malignants to declaim upon; and nothing is more common than to hear ſuch charge all the conſequences of their own imprudence and extravagance upon the meaſures of Great-Britain. Many a man, who has not effects ſufficient to pay half what he owes, lays his inability at the door of the ſtoppage of the Spaniſh trade and the ſtamp-act; and thoſe who never paid a ſhilling duty complain that theſe harpies, the cuſtom-houſe officers, have carried away all the gold and ſilver. Our aſſemblymen are all turning œconomiſts from ſimiliar motives. The ſtanding order for wearing wigs and ſtockings has been rescinded in reſpect to committees; ſo they will now do buſineſs in caps and long growſers. Should a new Governor arrive here while an Aſſembly is ſitting, and they ſhould ſend a committee to compliment him, he would probably, from their dreſs, take them for ſo many unhappy perſons ready equipped for execution, who had come to petition him for a pardon, and not for the only true repreſentatives of the province coming to addreſs him. Such are the poor ſhifts the patriots here are driven to in order to alarm your manufacturers, and ſupport their own ſinking importance. O that terrible ſtroke upon them! the ſending troops to Boſton has ſo lowered them, that they dare not bully; and all they have for it now is pretences to œconomy. People on your ſide, I hope will not be ſo weak as to take any notice of their reſolutions, and then all will ſoon be over with them, and ſubmiſſion and quiet will follow. Yours, &c.

AUGUST 19. The parliament of Ireland which ſtood prorogued to Tueſday the 22d inſtant, is further prorogued to Tueſday the 17th of October next.

It is imagined that extraordinary powers will be given by the miniſtry to the commodore of the India fleet; as no other motive but that of rank could, it is believed, induce the gentleman appointed to that command, who has a very handſome fortune at preſent, and is lately married, to go on ſuch an expedition.

The lying ſeemingly dormant, while the Eaſt-India directors were forming the plan of the commiſſion of ſupervition; and at laſt, when they were ready to put their reſolves in execution, the placing his finger on a ſuppoſed blot in the commiſſion, and not ſuffering them to proceed to the putting it in force without firſt complying with his demands, was certainly a maſterly piece of policy in the premier.

AUGUST 23. It is reported, that General Draper is to be appointed to the command of the Britiſh forces in North-America, in the room of General Gage.

It is affirmed, that the French miniſter, in a converſation with our ambaſſador at the court of Verſailles, told him, that his maſter would cede the important kingdom of Corſica to Great-Britain, for one half of the money expended upon the late conqueſt of it.

As the ſupporters of the Bill of Rights are allowed not to be a body corporate, there can be no objection to their admitting foreigners into their ſociety: It is therefore hoped, by the friends of liberty, that Paoli may be admitted into the vacant ſeat of Samuel Vaughan, Eſq.

A certain female hiſtorian has been adviſed by her friends, to lay aſide her deſign of receiving a foreign patriot, under her roof; for the malicious world, notwithſtanding her eſtabliſhid auſterity of character, would ſay, that negociations of a more private and tender nature than thoſe of a republican government might be on the carpet between them.

We hear that the purchaſes made by Doctor Hunter, at the late auction of fine choſen books at Paris, conſiſted of the beſt editions of moſt of the claſſics, many of which were the firſt impreſſions printed on vellum.

AUGUST 24. It is computed that his Majeſty's revenue will ſuſtain a loſs little ſhort of two hundred thouſand pounds per annum, on the article of tobacco, in caſe its cultivation ſhould be diſcontinued in Maryland and Virginia, as has been threatened by the planters.

On Saturday laſt a writ was iſſued from the office of the court of Common-Pleas in the Temple, in the name of the Right Hon. George Onſlow, Eſq; plaintiff, againſt John Horne, of New-Brentford, Clerk. This cauſe is expected to come on in the court of Common-Pleas the next term, before Lord Chief Juſtice Wilmot. We hear Mr. Horne has retained Serjeant Glynn and Serjeant Leigh.

This morning his exceſſency the Dutch Ambaſſador had a long conference with the Earl of Rochford, on account of diſpatches received yeſterday from the Hague.

This morning ſeveral gentlemen, Agents for the American colonies, waited upon the Earls of Rochford and Weymouth, on the ſubject of recent inſtructions.

On Tueſday the Earl and Counteſs of Chatham arrived at Hayes, from Earl Temple's ſeat at Stowe.

We hear that a ſcheme is under conſideration for dividing certain provinces beyond the Atlantic into diſtinct governments, in the ſame manner as St. John's Iſland is ſeparated from the government of Newfoundland.

We hear from Coventry, that ſeveral pluſh weaver have lately been engaged there to embark for New-England.

On monday his Grace the Duke of Grafton, and ſeveral others of the nobility, dined with Earl Temple at Stowe.

AUGUST 25. Yeſterday the following gentlemen waited on his Majeſty at St. James's with the Petition from the freeholders of the county of Surry, viz. the hon. Peter King, Sir Francis Vincent, bart. Sir Joſeph Mawbey, bart. Joſeph Martin, Eſqr; Andrew Chapman, Eſq; Joſeph Clarke, Eſq. Sir Anthony Abdy, bart. met the above gentlemen, previous to their going to court, at the Thatched-Houſe Tavern; but being greatly indiſpoſed with the heat, could not attend them to the palace. On the King's return from the drawing-room, Sir Francis Vincent, bart. the worthy repreſentative of the county, preſented the Petition to his Majeſty, which was moſt graciouſly received, and is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble PETITION of the Freeholders of the County of SURRY.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal ſubjects, the freeholders of the county of Surry, from a grateful ſenſe of the ineſtimable bleſſings which this nation has enjoyed under the mild and equal government of your Majeſty, and your illuſtrious predeceſſors of the Houſe of Brunſwick, and from a ſteady attachment, zeal, and affection to your Royal perſon and family, think it our duty to join with our injured fellow-ſubjects in humbly offering to your Majeſty our complaints of the meaſures adopted by pernicious counſellors, who, we apprehend, have countenanced and adviſed a violation of the firſt principle of the conſtitution, The right of election in the people, which is the ſecurity of all their rights, is alſo the foundation of your Majeſty's; we cannot therefore forbear being alarmed when we ſee that firſt principle violated in the late inſtance of the Middleſex election. We have ſeen, Royal Sire, with great concern, an application of the freeholders of the county of Middleſex, made by their humble petition to the Houſe of Commons, complaining of that meaſure, defeated; and it is with the utmoſt reluctance we now find ourſelves conſtrained to appeal to your ſacred perſon, from whoſe juſtice and goodneſs we can alone hope for redreſs. We therefore moſt humbly implore your Majeſty, that you would be graciouſly pleaſed to give us ſuch relief as to your royal wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet, by an exertion of that prerogative which the conſtitution has ſo properly placed in your Majeſty's hands. And your Majeſty's petitioners ſhall ever pray, &c.

The petition was ſigned by 1494 freeholders, which number was deemed ſufficient, as ſeveral gentlemen, who were appointed to preſent it, were obliged next week to go into diſtant parts of the kingdom, and as they are certainly a great majority of the freeholders reſident in the county.

Petitions of a very different nature from thoſe of this city and county, are preparing in ſeveral parts of this kingdom, and, it is ſaid, will be delivered in the courſe of next month.

We hear that the Parliament will meet for diſpatch of buſineſs in November.

Yeſterday the Duke of Beaufort, maſter of the horſe to the Queen, arrived in town perfectly recovered from the effects of his late accident, and was yeſterday at court.

The Duke of Grafton's late viſit to Earl Temple at Stowe, has occaſioned various conjectures.

Some affirm that the miniſtry have lately made very conſiderable offers to a learned ſerjeant at law, which they ſay, were refuſed with a noble firmneſs; while others have not been wanting in uſhering a report that the ſerjeant was become a miniſterial convert.

AUGUST 26. Yeſterday Admiral Pye was preſented to his Majeſty for the firſt time ſince his arrival from his ſtation in the Weſt-Indies, was moſt graciouſly received, and had the honour of kiſſing his hand.

On Thurſday laſt Sir John Lindſay received his commiſſion of Commander in Chief of the ſquadron deſtined for India; and yeſterday he kiſſed his Majeſty's hand on occaſion of the above promotion.

It is ſaid with great appearance of probability, that a change in the miniſtry will ſpeedily take place; that Lord Chatham will again ſuperintend the national affairs; and what is ſtill more ſingular, will be united with ſome certain great men, with whom it has been repeatedly aſſerted he declared he would never have any connection.

We hear that all matters in diſpute between adminiſtration and the directors of a certain great company, are amicably and equitably adjuſted.

A letter from Edinburgh mentions, that general Conway has ſurveyed the fortifications in that part of the kingdom, propoſed ſetting out from thence as yeſterday for the north of Ireland, to inſpect the forts in that kingdom.

Thurſday night ſeveral betts were made at the Coffee-houſes about the Royal Exchange, that Mr. Wilkes would receive a full pardon within a fortnight.

The next general meeting of the proprietors of Eaſt-India ſtock, which is appointed for next Wedneſday, will be the moſt deciſive, probably, that ever was agitated in that houſe; as the object is no leſs than that of aſcertaining who ſhall ſuperintend the Aſiatic affairs, Government or the company? And we hear, the reaſon why this meeting has been thus procraſtinated, is to give ſufficient time to every proprietor to acquaint himſelf with the fundamental privileges of the company, that he may know, with more preciſion, what to give up, or want to retain. Mr. M'Intoſh, the laſt court day, ſpeaking on this ſubject, obſerved, "That it was a criſis that not only reſpected every gentleman as a proprietor, but as an Engliſhman, as his liberty was now as much at ſtake as his property; and therefore he hoped that ſteadineſs and attention to the point, would be the principal objects of every proprietor.

Yeſterday was married at St. James's church, Lieutenant Governor Durnford, to Miſs Walker, of Loweſtoffe in Suffolk.

Letters from Warſaw of the 5th inſtant, mention that the Ruſſians continue to bombard the fortreſs of Choczim with ſucceſs; but that they begin to be apprehenſive leſt the want of proviſions ſhould oblige them to raiſe the ſiege and retire; that part of the Ruſſian army have already began to repaſs the Nieſter; that upwards of 30,000 Greeks wait only for an opportunity of joining the Ruſſian troops; and that the news of the defeat of the Seraſkier has ſpread terror among the army of the Grand Viſir.

They write from Mantua of the 2d inſt. that general Paoli ſet out from thence on the 29th ult. for Verona, and is to go from thence to Vienna.

It was this morning reported, that a demand of a very extraordinary nature will ſoon be made on the States-General of the United Provinces.

This morning Sir Edward Hawke had a long conference with the ſecretaries of ſtate.

The author of a prophecy under the ſignature of Merlin junior, in a morning paper, ſays, "In plain Engliſh, if it be not found, before ſix months elapſe, that the King and the Earl of Bute are ſincerely deſirous of reſtoring the conſtitution, by eſtabliſhing ſhort parliaments, an adequate repreſentation, and excluſion of placemen, penſioners and military officers, from the Houſe of Commons, I am not poſſeſſed of the ſpirit of prophecy."

Laſt night the reverend Mr. Whitefield had a parting general ſacrament at the Tabernacle near Moorefields, when it is ſuppoſed there were near two thouſand communicants. We hear he takes his leave to-morrow morning of Tottenham-Court Chapel, and embarks ſome time next week for Charles-Town, South-Carolina, in his way to Georgia.

AUGUST 29. It is now confidently aſſerted at the weſt end of the town, that Mr. Luttrell's ſeat will be vacated by his acceptance of a lucrative employment, on the meeting of parliament.

We hear that the report lately made to the miniſtry by a ſea commander was, that during the time of his command in the Weſt-Indies, the French and Spaniſh governors adhered ſtrictly to the treaty of peace between the reſpective crowns, except in the few inſtances of ſeizures for illicit trade, which have been compromiſed.

Notwithſtanding what a certain Governor has declared in a public ſpeech, that though he is at preſent recalled, it has been intimated to him that he ſhall ſtill continue in his poſt, and ſoon return to America; yet it is the opinion of every one who has any knowledge in the affairs of government, that Sir Francis will never more ſee the American continent in the capacity in which he now leaves it.

By gentlemen juſt arrived from Dunkirk we are informed, that a number of workmen and galley ſlaves are now employed in repairing and deepening the canal at Mardyke.

This day at twelve o'clock, there was a numerous and reſpectable meeting of the electors of the city of Weſtminſter aſſembled in Weſtminſter-hall, when Sir Robert Bernard took the chair, who made a conciſe and elegant ſpeech ſuitable to the occaſion of the meeting, which was received with loud acclamations of applauſe. After which the petition of the electors of the city and liberty of Weſtminſter was read by Sir Robert Bernard, complaining of the violation of the rights of election in the perſon of John Wilkes, Eſq; and praying his Majeſty to diſſolve a certain aſſembly. Mr. Almon, bookſeller in Piccadilly, then informed the electors, that different copies of the petition were placed in the Hall, for the greater conveniency of thoſe who chooſe to ſign their names to it before they left the place; and ſome ſheets were filled up before eleven o'clock. The whole was conducted with the utmoſt decency and decorum.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Auguſt 5.

"There is now a general Stagnation of Public Buſineſs. Addreſſes to the King, they ſay, are preparing in all parts of the Kingdom, and ſome are ſanguine enough to believe that his M------y, will lay them before the Parliament, at the Opening of the next Seſſion. Wilkes continues quiet in the King's-Bench, but his Silence is judged to be political. Yeſterday the Houſe of Aſſembly of the Government of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware, met here, when the Honourable Cæſar Rodney, Eſq; was choſen Speaker, and James Sykes, Eſq; Clerk of the Aſſembly.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 12.

Extract of a Letter from Providence, in Rhode-Iſland Government, dated October 19, 1769.

"The Merchants of Providence, have this Day come into an Agreement, not to import any more Goods from Great-Britain, until a general Importation ſhall take Place."

NEW-PORT, (Rhode-Iſland) OCTOBER 9.

From Boſton we hear, that one Day laſt Week, a Veſſel arrived there from Scotland, with a conſiderable Quantity of Britiſh Manufactures, whereupon the Sons of Liberty aſſembled, and came to a Reſolution, to ſend her back with her Cargo; they carefully watched her one Night to prevent the landing her Cargo, with an Intention to give any Perſon, who might attempt to ſmuggle, a proper Diſcipline at Liberty-Poſt. The next Day the true-born Sons generouſly ſubſcribed a Sum of Money, equal to the Value of the Freight of the Ship Home, which they preſented to the Captain, and gave him Directions to return to the Place from whence he came, which he accordingly obeyed on Thurſday laſt, by ſetting ſail for Scotland.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 16.

Mr. Nathaniel Rodgers has acceded to the Agreement of non-importation, and has accordingly delivered to the committee of inſpection the goods he has imported contrary to ſaid agreement.

Meſſrs. JOHN SKETCHLEY, & Co.
OF GOSPORT;

BEG Leave to acquaint their Friends in the Carolina Trade, that they have at a very great Expence added to their former Conveniencies, Three commodious STORE-HOUSES, built with Brick and Tile, the largeſt of which is intended to ſtart RICE in, when the Weather is unſettled.

This, with a Draught of fourteen Feet, at low Water, cloſe to their Wharf, where Veſſels lye always aſloat, makes it one of the moſt convenient in England for large Ships as well as ſmall Veſſels. And being otherways on a footing with any other Wharf in this Trade, they ſhall be much obliged to the Gentlemen concerned therein, for the Favour of their Orders, which ſhall be executed with the greateſt Care, Diligence, and Diſpatch.

THE Partnerſhip of JOHN BRAUND, and Company, expires the firſt of January next, by Conſent, they therefore inform the Public, that they intend to ſell at Public Vendue, on the firſt Tueſday in January next, for CASH, or Six Months Credit, giving Security and paying Intereſt from the Date, ALL their CARTS, DRAYS, and HORSES, with all the Harneſs and other Tackling compleat, a Parcel of ſpare Harneſs, and Stable Utenſils.

Likewiſe a good SCHOONER, that carries Ninety Barrels of Rice, or Twelve Cords of Wood, with all her Rigging, Sails, Anchors, Cables, &c. compleat.

At the ſame Time will be ſold, the Leaſe of a half Acre Lot on the Green, of which there is Five Years and a half to come, from the firſt Day of January next, with all the Buildings thereon, which are to be taken away at the Expiration of the Leaſe, conſiſting of a good Stable, with Stands for Thirty Horſes, with a good Corn-houſe, Harneſs-houſe, Chair houſes, and Sheds for Water Caſks, and a large Brick Well, 12 Feet Diameter, of the beſt Water in Charles-Town. And a ſmall Dwelling-houſe, with Four Rooms in it, on the Lot, and every other Conveniency fit for carrying on the Carting and Watering Buſineſs.

Likewiſe one able ſtout NEGRO Fellow, belonging to the Company, and the Leaſe of the Paſture, up the Path, of which there is two Years to come.

Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe the whole, or any Part, by private Sale, may treat with us the Subſcribers.

JOHN BRAUND,
MICHAEL KALTEISEN,
JOHN MARLEY.

N. B. They deſire all thoſe that have any Accounts againſt the Partnerſhip, to ſend them in as ſoon as poſſible, in order to have them ſettled.
